PRIVACY POLICY:

1. User consent

By filling out and submitting the forms on this website, the user expressly accepts and consents to their personal details being handled automatically by Medicen Paris Region. Furthermore, by accepting this condition you authorize Biocat, “La Caixa” Foundation, Meditecnologia and EIT Health to access your personal data for any concern related to this activity.

Medicen Paris Region hereby notifies and expressly ensures users that the personal data provided will under no circumstances be transferred to other third parties and that if any such transfer of personal details were to arise, Biocat would request express, informed, unequivocal consent beforehand from the users to which the details pertain. The data shall be saved as long as the mutual interest for which they were collected remains and, when said purpose no longer exists, they shall be deleted with the proper security measures to ensure the pseudonymization of the data or their total destruction.

The user declares that all information provided is true and correct, and undertakes to notify Medicen Paris Region of any changes that may occur in said data.

Some of the information requested by Biocat is obligatory, as these details are necessary to provide optimal service to the user. If the user does not provide all of these details, Medicen Paris Region cannot ensure that the information and services provided will fully meet their needs. Biocat notifies users when details are obligatory and/or necessary for the proper functioning of the service.

Additionally, if users submit personal details regarding a third party through the forms on this website, they must first obtain said party's consent and inform them of the contents of the paragraphs above.

Medicen Paris Region reserves the right to take photographs and video recordings of the events and activities it organizes. By accepting this legal disclaimer in registering for these events, participants are expressly providing prior authorization and consent to Biocat to use any images of the user participating in an event organized by Biocat to broadcast in a live feed, record on video or disseminate openly, in accordance with the right to one's own image, as established in Article 18 of the Spanish Constitution, and the right to honor, personal and family privacy and one's own image, as established in Organic Law 1/1982, of 5 May.

Nevertheless, the user may decline to be recorded and photographed at any time by notifying Biocat in the manner established in the legal disclaimer below.

2. Security

In accordance with current data protection regulations, Medicen Paris Region complies with all provisions of the GDPR regarding the handling of the data under its custody, and expressly with the principles described in article 5 of the GDPR, which are handled legally, faithfully and transparently with regard to the party to which they pertain and restricted to the proper, pertinent and strictly necessary handling for the purposes for which they were provided.

Medicen Paris Region ensures it has implemented appropriate technical and organizational policies to apply the security measures established in the GDPR in order to protect the rights and freedoms of users and has duly notified them of the information necessary to exercise them.

3. Applicable law and jurisdiction

Right to revoke consent at any time. Right to access, correct, delete, request portability or limitation, or oppose to the handling of their data. Right to file a claim with the competent supervisory authority (agpd.es) if they consider the handling of personal data is not in line with current regulations.
